St Columba's and St Peter's, Edinburgh
Easter Sunday —Year C
 20 April—4 May 2025

Almost every element in this Gospel story is charged with symbolism. The darkness of the 'first day of the week' evokes the darkness of Genesis 1, suggesting that Jesus' death is the prelude to a new creation.

The burial clothes, and especially their arrangement, are a sign that Mary Magdalen's interpretation of the empty tomb is not the correct one. Jesus has not been 'taken' anywhere. Rather, he's left the things of mortality behind him.

However, only the beloved disciple correctly interprets the sign. He realises what has happened - and he believes. It is not what he has read in Scripture that convinces him that Jesus has risen. (Later, of course, the words of scripture would confirm him in his belief).

Canon Kenneth writes ...

We have reached the summit of the Christian year with the celebration of Easter. We have also welcomed new members into our parish community. Eastertide is that time in the Church's year when we prolong the celebration Sunday by Sunday until Pentecost.

It is the opportunity for us to deepen our faith. The Sunday liturgies take us on a journey of discovery. Inviting us to get to know Jesus better and to develop a deeper relationship with him.

Take that opportunity. Be attentive to the scripture. Notice the joyful hymns we sing in Eastertide. Make Eastertide this year a time of real learning and the chance to know the Lord better.

Christ has risen from the dead, alleluia, alleluia!

Books! Books! Books! All the out-of-date Mass books at the back of St. Peter's are going for recycling. If anyone would like a complete set of them please speak to John Wastle at the back of church. We're also disposing of the books on the shelves in St. Peter's Parish Room – novels etc. Please have a browse and take any you would like.

A number of years ago I wrote a series of fifteen reflections for Eastertide called Stations of Resurrection. In this Octave of Easter I share two:

Resurrection
The Morning Star that never fades.
Bring light in our shattered world.
Touch us with the power of your Resurrection and new life.
Renew us in your love, that we in our turn, may becoming loving.
Enable us to be refreshed by the power of your grace and nourished by your word.
Help us to reach out into the world today.
So that those who feel alone and isolated
May be touched by your saving love that finds concrete expression by our actions.

Risen Lord, be a source of inspiration and new hope, alleluia

Mary of Magdala meets the Risen Lord

Mary represents all believers. She is seeking the Lord but she does not know where to find him. She has been converted by Jesus and wants to experience newness of life in his kingdom. She is graced with recognizing his voice and being invited not to cling to him but to let the work of the Father be done. Like Mary, help me:

To seek the Lord in my daily life so that I may be more docile to God's grace and more open to God's plan for me.

Give me a humble spirit so that I may be open to conversation in my life and may experience the fruits of living according to the gospel. Enable me Lord to recognize God's voice when you speak to me in those quiet moments of life.

May I be docile to your will and open to your spirit.

Reflection

It is impossible to exaggerate the value of hope. Hope is to the Spirit what bread is to the body. Our disappointments may be many, our joys may be small, but our hope is great. The resurrection of Jesus is the basis of our hope. Go to power and love, through the resurrection of your son You have kindled in our hearts the hope of eternal life. God this hope with your grace, and bring it to fulfilment in the Kingdom of Heaven.
